

TERA 2021: Educational reform, global citizenship, and sustainable future

Important Events

Call for papers

2021 / 6

Deadline for abstract submission

2021 / 9 / 17

Notification of acceptance

2021 / 9 / 30

Deadline for registration

2021 / 10 / 8

Deadline for regular registration

2021 / 10 / 22

Main conference (Virtual)

2021 / 11 / 12-13

Online Submission

For participants:

1. Presentation: Oral or Poster.
2. Please submit an English abstract (approx. 300 words) or Chinese abstract (approx. 500 words) at conference website: <http://tera2021.nsysu.edu.tw/>

Conference Division

1. Curriculum and pedagogy reform
2. Global citizenship education
3. Education for sustainable development
4. Learning sciences
5. Taiwan's 12-year basic education competency-based curriculum guidelines
6. International assessment and big data of students' competence
7. Teacher Education
8. Life and gender education
9. Environment and ocean education
10. International education
11. Ethics and character education
12. Imagination and creativity education
13. Educational research in a post-epidemic era
14. Other important educational issues

The Best
Paper Award

Please upload paper:
1. In English (within 5000 words) or in Chinese (within 8000 words).
2. In PDF format.

Organizer National Sun Yat-sen University (NSYSU)
 Taiwan Education Research Association (TERA)
Hosted by  Institute of Education, Center for Teacher Education International Graduate Program of Education and Human Development, National Sun Yat-sen University
Co-Hosted by  Global Association of Chinese Creativity (GACC)
Sponsored by  Ministry of Science and Technology (MOST)
Ministry of Education (MOE)
Venue National Sun Yat-sen University, Kaohsiung, Taiwan

COVID-19 Statement

Due to COVID-19, TERA 2021 will be held virtually.

The TERA organizers are excited about this year's theme, and the possibilities for broad international discussion that an online conference can offer.

We will be hosting a virtual conference in Google Meet/Zoom.

We look forward to your participation. Please join us.

